

Westfields Wins Fairfax County Blue Ribbon Award!

Fairfax County Office of Public Private Partnerships has awarded the Westfields Business Owners Association their Blue Ribbon Partnership Award for 2011 for its support for the surrounding community. This award was nominated by Sue Boucher of Fairfax-Falls Church Community Service Board. The WBOA is very honored to have received such an award and is a reflection of the dedication and efforts of the Community Involvement Committee and their dedicated members. The WBOA Office would like to thank Sue Boucher for her support and nomination for this award. The WBOA would also like to thank Ms. Kellie Perry, the President of the Community Involvement Committee (CIC) and Sr Property Manager with Corporate Office Properties Trust. She has led this committee for many years and as done a stellar job managing the committee and our efforts in the community. We would also like to thank the many CIC volunteers that spend their time and efforts to make our Westfields community such a special place work. In addition we would like to thank property owners and Board of Directors who have been so gracious in their support for this committee and its programs. Thank you and Job well done!!
